RAIL RODE

Krazy Kat is doing trick stuff around a locomotive. Ignatz is enviously watching him. When Krazy Kat's back is turned he steals the locomotive with Krazy Kat's girl in the caboose. The feline grabs a hand-car and pursues Ignatz. He finally gets his train back and throws Igantz out.

Ignatz is sore and he throws a switch up whereby Krazy Kat and an onrushing locomotive are on the same track. The Kat sees the train rushing toward him and tries to stop his train, but cannot. He jumps out onto the cow-catcher and forms his tail into a spring and as the other train hits the spring everything comes out fine and a wreck is averted.

The president of the road congratulates Krazy Kat and is about to pin a medal on his chest, when it begins to swell to such an extent that it finally bursts and wrecks both trains and passengers. He comes up out of a heap of passengers groggy and throws out the stars like flowers and they form the Paramount insignia.

THE END.
